

AMPLIFY YOUR VOICE: Make an Audiobook

Professional recording and production of audiobooks for authors, entrepreneurs, & C-level executives.

Why record with us?

Your voice is one of the most powerful ways to connect with people. We give you the opportunity to record your book in your unique speaking style and deepen your connection with your audience. And if you wish to have a professional voice talent do the talking for you, we work with the best in the business.

Our audiobooks are produced to the exact specifications needed for any audiobook platform. When you receive your audiobook recording, the file is ready for you to distribute immediately.

Who Is Voice Over Vermont?

Headed up by Mary Catherine Jones, owner and executive producer, Voice Over Vermont is the chosen recording studio for a wide array of authors of memoir and narrative non-fiction. Our 10+ yrs in the industry, leading technology, and expert guidance ensure that your project is made with the exceptional quality and care you and your book deserve.

Our Vermont Studio

The studio is a warm, inviting place to bring your words to life. Our professionally engineered audio booth is guaranteed to provide you with the ideal recording environment. We leverage the most current recording technology with our extensive knowledge and experience to make you sound like yourself without any distractions from the outside world.

Unable to travel to Vermont?

We'll guide you to a wonderful studio closer to home via our extensive network. You'll stay connected with Mary Catherine in your ear offering gentle direction and encouragement as you record.

"The talent, creativity, and critical energy Mary Catherine brought to the production of my books shines a whole new light on the process for me. I thoroughly & unconditionally recommend her as an outstanding service provider to the publishing industry."

Bill Schubart, Lila and Theron, A Novel

"New to narrating, I welcomed Mary Catherine's voice in my ear coaching me. Her suggestions were spot-on and her guidance invaluable. Her support throughout the project eased my fears and produced a top-quality product."

Barbara Morrison, Innocent, A Memoir

"...personable, professional, and proficient. Thanks to her interest and support my book of free-verse stories are now available for both bibliophiles and audiophiles."

Jack T. Scully, Mianus Village, Poems
